Aircraft Maintenance
AIRCRAFT MAINTENANCE MANAGEMENT

This supplement prescribes the procedures for picking up Civil Air Patrol aircraft from maintenance facility.

1. Whenever an aircraft is taken or delivered to a maintenance facility it is that facilities responsibility to take whatever actions are needed to see that the aircraft is completely repaired and or serviced prior to being returned to service.
2. Under no circumstances will that aircraft be picked up, tested, or operated without prior approval from either the Wing Maintenance Officer or the Wing Commander of the wing responsible for that asset.
